A woman was burned to death as she slept in her car by a man who was also badly injured in a crash during a police pursuit over the weekend in Clackamas County, Ore., officials said. The man is still hospitalized, according to Clackamas County Sheriff's Office Deputy Lori Douglas. Douglas said her department is still working to determine whether to charge the man with a crime. One Oregon man is dead and another man was being treated for injuries suffered in a crash after police tried to stop him for a traffic violation, the Oregon State Police said Sunday. Craig C. Thomas, 35, of Portland, Oregon, was killed Friday in the crash along Interstate 205 west of West Linn, the state police said. Thomas was traveling west in the lane of Interstate 205 and was driving a Jeep north on Tualatin Valley Highway, according to the state police. State police said it has charged Aaron D. Klages, 40, of West Salem with reckless manslaughter. Klages is accused of rear-ending Thomas' Jeep in the southbound lanes and then leaving the scene of the crash. The driver of the Jeep, identified as Rhonda T. MacKay, 41, of West Salem, was not injured in the crash. Thomas was driving with his 4-year-old daughter, according to the state police. Klages faces a maximum of four years in prison if convicted of the felony offense. State police said he is being held at the Clackamas County Jail on a $150,000 bail and is scheduled to be charged Monday in Marion County Circuit Court.

Q: How to use a variable in an sqlsrv_query I have a variable to which I pass an SQL Query. I dont know how to use this SQL query in the sqlsrv_query. $sql = $_POST['select_data']; $stmt = $this->dbh->prepare($sql); // Set the query params. We are selecting by the ID. $stmt->bindParam(':check_id', $check_id, PDO::PARAM_INT);
