The music is so good that it's hard not to wonder if it has something to do with it being the soundtrack to a Michael Clark 'gay' ballet which is really a shame because this is phenomenal cd.

With Fall fans being a fickle bunch K O Is often looked at as one of the least liked releases.. The Fall - I Am Kurious Oranj - Amazon com Music Interesting Finds Updated Overture from 'I Am Curious, Orange' Overture from 'I Am Curious, Orange' 2:48.. wow That's a unique sound About five or six songs into the cd Cab It Up came on and the song was so friggen catchy that I walked up to the counter and bought it right out of the player.

From the steamroller opening track 'New Big Prinz' to the surprisingly pretty instrumental 'Overture From 'I am Curious, Orange' amusingly pockmarked by Brix' ejaculations, to the disturbing 'Jerusalem' to the vintage Fall 'Wrong Place, Right Time' to the Fall's inimitable take on the HIV epidemic 'Van Plague?' ('father takes it in his stride, says 'back in the closet, son') this album loads the Fall canon with classic after classic.. If you are forced to put together a 20 track 'best of' retrospective on the Fall, at least two tracks will come from here.. Not a popular statement to make but this could be the best Fall record of them all.

I think I pretty much played it every day after that for about three months even after buying 5-6 other Fall cd's in the meantime.. It was released on 10 October 1988 through record label Beggars Banquet Another reason of course is the obvious influence of Brix Smith which is another aspect of Fall history that the fickle fans resent for some ridiculous reason.. The opening and closing tracks are heavier remake versions of the Fall Hex classic Hip Priest and every song inbetween is very good to very
